17th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: People have lots of prayers that they would like answered. Whether it is petitions written and placed in our Petition Basket, requests made of a priest or a friend, entreaties offered to God before bed, or appeals made in the midst of a crisis, we are always looking for an answer. Sometimes we pray knowing what we want, like a child sitting on Santa's lap with a list of Christmas toys. Many times we pray with the expectation that God will see things our way and answer our prayers. In this week's Gospel, Jesus teaches His disciples about prayer. Luke's version of the Lord's Prayer is a little different from Matthew's, but it is essentially the same. In Jesus' methodology, prayer starts with praising God (hallowed be your name) and then asks God to do what God wants (your kingdom come). Only then does prayer move on to posing our requests for God's consideration (give us this day our daily bread). Finally we ask for God's help (forgive us our sins). The Lord's Prayer became so much a part of Christian praying that the Fathers of the Church (early Christian writers like St. Augustine, St. Gregory, and St. Leo the Great) recommended that if a person couldn't remember any other prayer (like a psalm) he or she should just pray the Lord's Prayer instead. The method of prayer that Jesus lays out for His disciples includes one final aspect — one that we like to forget. Luke's version puts it this way, "for we ourselves forgive everyone in debt to us." More commonly we say, "as we forgive those who trespass against us." Are we ready to have God act that way toward us? Do we really want God to treat us the way we treat others? That is the challenge, if we continue to pray the Lord's Prayer day after day.

OUR ANNUAL HOMECOMING BAZAAR

FRIDAY and SATURDAY

AUGUST 6 and 7

In less than two weeks, we will be enjoying a great time at the Bazaar. It's a safe place for kids to wander and enjoy some exciting games. Also for the big kids (adults) there are some fun games as well. You already know the foods are exceptionally delicious and they'll be prepared to your liking. And how about those Tricky Trays - the best and most in the area. Some really fine prizes here. And the raffles give you a chance to win $1,400.00 in cash and double it if it matches the lottery number. All in all, it's going to be a great time. So make sure your plans are to be here and enjoy. Invite your friends in the neighborhood. Ask your extended family to come by. Tell everyone about our Bazaar. It's going to be a great time for all.

MEMORIAL BRICKS: The next order for memorial bricks will be sent in mid-August. Order forms are on the table in the Narthex. Offering for a brick is $50.00.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION (CCD): We're always looking for volunteers for our CCD Program. We currently serve over four hundred children in the program. If you would like to volunteer as a teacher, substitute teacher, classroom or office aide, please call the Church office and leave your name and number. Mrs. Gallagher, our coordinator, will contact you.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION and CONFIRMATION PICTURES and DVD'S can be picked up during regular working hours (9:00 A.M. to noon and 2:00 to 4:00 P.M.).

BAPTISM CLASS: Parents planning a Baptism are required to attend one of the monthly Baptism sessions, whether before or after the birth of their child. Our next class is Sunday, August 15th, at 1:00 P.M. Register today by calling the Church office.

YOUR PRAYERS ARE REQUESTED FOR:

THE SICK: Kathleen Franks, Barbara Horvath, Lucille Constantino, Norman Transue, Alex Giacometti, Mary Talocka, Peter Dunne, Infant Zachary Garrett, George Hammond, Vera Setari, Eleanor Kime, Michael Forzato, Suzy Urban, Joanne Jaccoud, Infant Ambrose Brown, Maureen and David Keller and ALL THE SICK. LORD, HELP THEM IN THEIR TIME OF NEED.

LIFELINE: For the very reason that God is love and man is His image we understand the person's profound identity, his vocation to love. Human beings are made for love; their lives are completely fulfilled only if they are lived in love. ~Pope Benedict XVI, Tenth International Youth Forum

BAZAAR SPONSORS: Do you know of anyone who would like to be a Bazaar Sponsor, either a business, a firm, or even a family or individual? We have two sponsor boards set up at the Bazaar for all to see. Your name could be on the board. Send in the form below (additional forms are in the Narthex) and we'll add your name to the list. Individual or family or memorial sponsorships are $25 each while business sponsorships have different categories. Call for these numbers. Thank You!

How To List on Board:

_____ Enclosed $25.00 for an individual or family sponsorship.

BAZAAR RAFFLE TICKETS: Are your tickets still on the table or refrigerator? Did you put them aside and forget to return them? Get them out now and make those returns. You can't win the $1,400 if you do not send the tickets in. Returns can be made through the regular Sunday collection, mailing or dropping them off at the Church. And, yes we'll take them at the Bazaar, too.

BAZAAR DONATIONS: We're still accepting donations for the Bazaar. It is really great to see so many people dropping off a little of this or some of that. These little donations add up to a lot when we put it all together. Thank you for thinking of your parish.

In the FOOD AREA, we could always use napkins, paper towels, plastic forks, spoons and knives, 8 oz. styrofoam and cold paper cups are also needed. The 9" plates, either paper or styrofoam are a big help.

In the GAMES AREA, a few more bottles of wine would be helpful along with any new items for our tricky trays and some gently used household items. If you have some time and would like to help wrap some tricky trays, give me a call and we'll set up a convenient time for you.

CHURCH T-SHIRTS: Are you interested in purchasing a Church T-shirt for the Bazaar? There are a couple of shirts on display in the Narthex of the Church. Order forms are there also. Shirts are $10 each and will be ready for the Bazaar, but get your order in quickly.

 PLEASE NOTE***

On Bazaar weekend, (August 7th) the Saturday evening Mass will be celebrated at 4:00 P.M. instead of the usual five o'clock. Mark your calendar.
